

As a participant in Indiana's no-call list I am asking you to make no changes to the existing law. I have enjoyed the protection this law has provided for me. I don't want my bank or credit card companies to have any more right to call me than any other business has. Thank you.